REPORT OF MEETINGS:

March 9, 1982 - The regular monthly meeting of O.B.G. Property Owners Assoc. Newly elected President, Howard Wagner presided. This was an Open Meeting. After the business was conducted, Mr. Rocky Harris and Mr. Chuck Johnson from the Sheriff's Office spoke on 'Crime Watch and Crime Prevention'. Mr. Harris stated that O.B.G. is the hardest hit in Lake County because of the assessability. O.B.G. is open to drive or walk in. The only solution is "Neighbor watching Neighbor". Everyone must get INVOLVED.

Mr. Chuck Johnson stated that when you call the Sheriff's office, give your Name and Address first. Then give definite information on what the problem is, whether it is presently in progress or already over. Try to have a definite description of person(s) involved and vehicle or license plate.

Remember - call the Sheriff's office first, (343-2101) not Lady Lake Police.

More information will be coming from our newly organized Crime Prevention Committee.

APOLOGY - We appologize for the error in the March Bulletin. Elma Berryman is a member on the Crime Prevention Committee. Her name was mis-printed as Wilma.

Anyone who wishes to give and was missed, or anyone who is eligible to donate again, will be welcome. We will give you more information at a later date.
