We deeply regret the passing away of John Auten. John was a very active member of our organization. He handled the monthly sorting and packaging of our bulletin, as well as acting as our Sergeant at Arms. We will miss his ready smile and cheery words. We wish the very best to Mrs. Alda Auten.

Jim Fuimano has volunteered to be our new Sergeant at Arms. We need people like Jim so willing to help and Thank Him very much. Welcome aboard Jim.

CHAIRMAN-Mr. Earl Snider will now handle the bulletins. Giving them to two Captains. Mr. Chas. Wolfe will handle units 1 & 2. Mr. Chas. Clay will handle Units 3, 3-1-B, 4 & 5. There are 27 block Captains to deliver to the homes. There were as of 11-20-84, 777 homes occupied in O. B. G.

We are growing very rapidly indeed. The O. B. G. P. O. A. needs the support of every resident and any volunteer work you may offer to do for us would be appreciated.

We need a legislative committee to help the board with legal matters. It requires some one with an interest in law and its problems. If you would like to help along this line, call the President, Glen Swindler.

Once again the complaints on free running pets have come up. Please, at all times, keep your pet

CLOSED MEETING

The December Meeting, Tuesday the 11th, 7:30PM
 Is a closed Meeting only Paid Up Members. It is Election of Officers and cards will be checked as you arrive. Come and Elect and meet your Officers for 1985.

THANK YOU

We want to Thank everyone who voted Nov. 6th.
 We know it was a long and tiresome wait in Line.
 But we Won. Thanks to all you wonderful people who turned out and waited so patiently to vote,
 and helped us all not to be annexed.

In case you do not know, it was 603 against Annexation and 31 for. Even the City of Lady Lake Helped us. They voted against having us. Wasn't that Great.

DECEMBER 15, 1984

on a leash. Your neighbors do not like cat tracks on their cars nor do they like to clean up the mess left by a visiting dog. With regards to the many R. Vs, boats trailers and other extra vehicles at various homes, the storage area for these units is overflowing and we will not have any more storage space until the work area is moved across U. S. 27. This should occur soon as possible after the first of the year.

The situation with the mail is very upsetting to many people. The company has tried to get the delivery time changed, as well as the P. O. A Change's are always made by the Post Office, but generally at their convenience so hang on, we do still get the mail once a day even though it is late.

We have assembled material we think we need, on the $640.00 resale water-sewer tap in fee. This material is now ready to go to our attorney. We will keep you posted on any activity.

The present security number is 787-0217. For the L. R. M. C. Ambulance the number is 326-4000.
