BULLETIN FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

We will have a guest speaker, Mrs. Etta Lewis of the Florida State Office of the Health and Rehabilitation Services Department. Mrs. Lewis will speak on various types of adult care facilities available to us, if we need them. There will be a question and answer period after her presentation.

The Central Florida Educators Credit Union has notified us that our Association members can join their Credit Union any time after August 1, 1985. They have an office at the Leesburg City Hall which operates on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. If we have enough interest, they would have personnel come to O.B.G. for a sign-up session.

The O.B.G. Management has applied to the Lady Lake Commission for a variance in zoning to allow them to landscape a center section of all future Cul-de-sac's. This action will further beautify our Gardens as well as help to reduce heat from the bare expanse of black top in these areas.

As a point of interest - The Water Oaks Park has asked the Zoning Board of Lady Lake for a new zoning classification to allow a single wide mobile home only class. These would be lots of 3225 sq.ft. as opposed to the present 5000 sq.ft. This is not a good thing to allow, as it is a new zoning that can effect any new development in the future.
