FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

A few days ago I had a very pleasant and enlightening visit with Harold Swartz at his office during which I explained to him about the aims and purposes of our organization. This meeting was held on an informal basis, but Mr. Swartz, after hearing me out agreed to check into some of our major concerns and try to correct them. He, Mr. Swartz agreed to more meetings.

Many thanks go to Howard Wagner for arranging the guest speaker at the March meeting who presented a very fine description of the method and purposes of the Central Florida Blood Bank.

We will have a guest speaker at our April meeting. This speaker will be an officer from the Lady Lake Police Department who will discuss the practicality of establishing a Neighborhood Crime Watch and tell

BLOODMOBILE

The Bloodmobile was here at the Clubhouse Monday the 17th. We want to THANK ALL who gave blood and also those who tried but had some problems and had to wait until next time.

The Mobile personnel want us to inform you that if you are on medication for high blood pressure, you can give blood, but it must be eight hours since you have had your medication so plan to take your medication after you give blood instead of before.

The Mobile will be back at O.B.G. in October. Meantime you may give at the Central Blood Bank on Route 441 just past the Lake Square Mall. Tell them it is for O.B.G.'s account.

Thank you all again. More in September's bulletin.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

We are asking you again - PLEASE DO NOT WALK AT NIGHT WITHOUT A LIGHT. Also put a collar on your pet that glows at night. We don't want our people or animals injured. We are trying to protect you. PLEASE HELP.

LIAISON OFFICER

We need a Liaison Officer to represent Unit 5. Anyone who is willing to VOLUNTEER contact David E. Jayne, our President at 753-1860.
